How will we deal with your complaint and how long is this likely to take?

If we can resolve your complaint within three working days after the day you made your complaint, we'll write to you to confirm this. Where we're unable to resolve your complaint within this time, we'll promptly write to you to acknowledge receipt. We'll then continue to investigate your complaint and aim to send you our final written decision within four weeks from the day of receipt. If we're unable to resolve your complaint within four weeks following receipt, we'll write to you to confirm that we're still investigating it.

*Any calls to Bupa Global are recorded and may be monitored.

Within eight weeks of receiving your complaint we'll either send you a final written decision explaining the results of our investigation or we'll send you a letter advising that we have been unable to reach a decision at this time.

If you remain unhappy with our response, or after eight weeks you don't wish to wait for us to complete our review, you may refer your complaint to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman. You can write to them at: Lincoln House, Lincoln Place, Dublin 2, D02 VH29 or contact them via email at info@fspo.ie or call them +353 1 567 7000.

Your complaint will be dealt with confidentially and won't affect how we treat you in the future.

If you are unhappy with the decision of the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman, you can appeal to the Irish High Court within 35 days. After 35 days, the decision becomes legally binding.

The European Commission also provides an online dispute resolution (ODR) platform which allows consumers who purchase online to submit complaints through a central site which forwards the complaint to the relevant Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) scheme. For Bupa Global, complaints will be forwarded to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman and you can refer complaints directly to them using the details above.
